IT'S THE STONE AGE. HOST A ROCKIN' PARTY!

DRESS THINGS UP

Transform your event space by decorating the walls with handprints and cave drawings. Add foam rocks and brown streamers and balloons.

Suggest guests come dressed as caveboys and cavegirls or as their favorite character from The Adventures of Ook and Gluk. Think animal prints or tattered clothing in brown or gray colors, sandals, fake bone necklaces, and messy, unbrushed hair.

An Ook and Gluk event isn't complete without a time machine! Use an oversized cardboard box or a screen as your portal to the future. Decorate the box or screen any way you wish and be sure to have a door opening so kids have a place to enter the time machine. You could also leave paper and pens inside or outside the time machine so that kids can write messages to people of the future or past, whichever they prefer.

DO THE BITE THING

Even cavemen need to eat! Be sure to have plenty of snacks available for hungry cavekids. And what exactly do cavemen eat? Anything that can be enjoyed with your hands—like trail mix, beef jerky, or fruit.

TALK LIKE A CAVEMAN

It fun! It easy! It annoy grown-ups!

Speak to your guests in caveman language, or cavemonics. Your guests will want to learn cavemonics, too! When they arrive at the party hand out copies of the Cavemonics Guide to Speaking Caveman Language Reproducible G.
