

Research checklist

▷ When using sources to find out about changes in an area, use the following checklist to guide your research. You may want to make this checklist bigger by adding other things relevant to your area.

Things I can find that have been added to the area:	Things I can see that have stayed the same:
New streets made <input type="checkbox"/> New footpaths <input type="checkbox"/> New churches <input type="checkbox"/> New factories <input type="checkbox"/> Railway lines <input type="checkbox"/>	Streets <input type="checkbox"/> Roads <input type="checkbox"/> Rivers and streams <input type="checkbox"/> Factories, mills, mines <input type="checkbox"/> Churches, cathedrals <input type="checkbox"/> Open fields and spaces <input type="checkbox"/>
Things I can see that have been removed:	Things I can see that have remained in the same place, but have changed their name and their use:
Inns <input type="checkbox"/> Churches <input type="checkbox"/> Factories <input type="checkbox"/> Fields <input type="checkbox"/>	Churches <input type="checkbox"/> Factories, mills <input type="checkbox"/> Fields <input type="checkbox"/>
