

PREVIEW

THE TV SHOW

In the TV show Brilliant Britain, famous people find out more about a part of British life that they think is brilliant!

In Barry McGuigan's Brilliant Britain, Barry travels around the UK to find out more about tea drinking. He discovers how tea arrived in Britain and the best ways to drink it. He meets some tea experts and learns how to make the perfect cup of tea!

THE PRESENTER

Barry McGuigan is a famous boxer from Ireland. He lives with his wife, Sandra, and their dog in Kent in the south of England. Everyone in Barry's family drinks tea – even the dog!

BARRY'S JOURNEY

On his journey around the UK, Barry learns how and when tea first came to Britain.

Barry tastes tea at Twinings, the oldest tea company in the UK.

Barry discovers the science behind his cup of tea.

The Ritz Hotel in London is famous for its afternoon tea, as Barry finds out.

Connoisseurs introduce Barry to new teas he has never tried before.

Now watch Clip 1. How many cups of tea are drunk in Britain every day?