

David Walliams

AWFUL AuNTiE

Character Description

I can respond imaginatively to what I have read and write imaginatively focusing on creative uses of language and on how to interest the reader

Look at this picture of Aunt Alberta. Use the labels on the picture and your imagination to write a detailed description of her. Don't forget – she's known as 'Awful Aunt Alberta' so let your imagination run riot. Remember to use your senses – think about how she might smell, how her voice sounds, how her skin might feel if she grabbed your hand.

Here are some words that might help you: gruff, crisp, rough, shiny, sparkling, grungy, dirty, sweaty, wrinkly, stinky, woolly, starchy, tight, baggy, rosy-cheeked, pimply, grubby, perfumed, muddy, of soft leather.
