

Learning with
Roald Dahl

Fantastic Mr Fox

FUN PHONICS WITH FANTASTIC MR FOX

Here are some ideas for class or group activities when you have read the story of Fantastic Mr Fox aloud to the whole class.

- Look at alliteration?

There are lots of examples in the story:

Fantastic Fox

Boggis, Bunce and Bean

- Play a word game with animals:

Fantastic Fox, Clever Cat, Lovely Lion, Greedy Goat, etc.

Or collect as many names beginning with B as you can to add to the names Boggis, Bunce and Bean.

- Look at the rhyme in the book about Boggis, Bunce and Bean.

In a shared-writing session with the class, make up another rhyme in a similar style.

- Act it out.

Choose a short bit of the story to re-enact. Almost all children love to act out a story – especially if you provide some old hats for dressing up.

Illustration copyright © Quentin Blake
throughout the school

For more Roald Dahl fun go to roalddahl.com