

A picture of Brunel

■ Label objects in the picture, using the words in the box below.

cigar waistcoat top hat winged collar watch chain

■ How do we know that Brunel lived a long time ago?

■ What can you see behind Brunel? What material were they made from? What might they have been used for?

■ What sort of job do you think Brunel had?

A timeline of the Great Fire

■ Cut out the pictures, captions and dates. Match them up and put them in the right order.

■ Put the dates at the start and end. Stick them all in your book to make a timeline.

People escape from the fire.

Pepys gives advice to the King.

The fire is out of control.

Buildings are blown up.

The start of the fire.

Friday 7 September 1666

The end of the fire.

Sunday 2 September 1666