

The life of Florence Nightingale

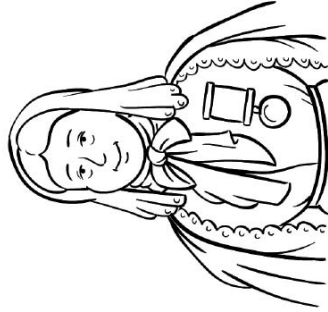

Florence opened a training school for nurses.

Florence decided she wanted to be a nurse.

Florence was awarded the Order of Merit.

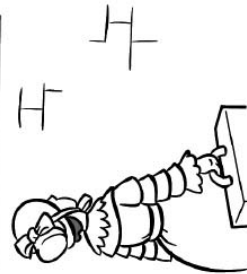

Florence was taught at home by her father.

Florence improved the conditions for the soldiers in the Crimea.

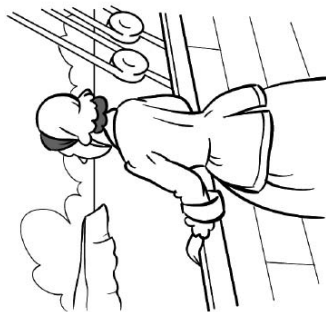

Florence learned how to be a nurse in Germany.

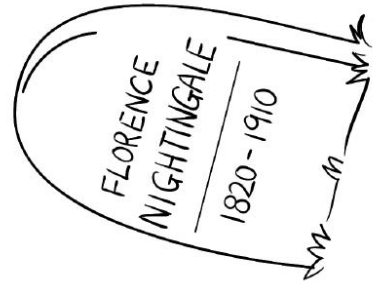

Florence was born on 12th May 1820.

Florence went to the Crimean War in 1854.

Florence died in 1910.

Florence made many hospitals cleaner and safer.

